Non-Uniform Day

Friday 3 February

~~School
Uniform~~

On this day we will be holding two events :

Eurovision Song Contest

This will take place in school with performances from both pupils and members of staff. The theme of this year's contest is "Cheesy Pop", and children are allowed to come to school in non-uniform – so if your child has anything associated with 'Cheesy Pop' songs / groups, that they could wear, this would be terrific. If not, don't worry!

EUROVISION
SONG CONTEST

NSPCC National Number Day

St. Paulinus will also be taking part in the NSPCC National Number Day. So if your child would prefer to come 'Dressed as a Digit'; they could wear something that has a number on it, or get more creative as a dice, calculator, ruler or even a playing card.

Children will be taking part in a number of fun, Maths based activities throughout the day, including a National TTRockstars competition.

We will be raising money for NSPCC to help keep their services running. Donations of 50p are welcome.
